How long have you been flairing for and how did you start?

I've been flairing for almost 6 year now and I started one day when my brother came home after a basic course and showed me a simple tin behind the back trick. Since then I've been flipping anything I could get my hands on.

Who can flair? Just anyone or does it take a specific kind of person?

I don't think flair is just for "special people." Of course it takes a lot of passion, time and dedication to learn. Right now, the level of flair around the world is so high that I'm starting to think that NOTHING IS IMPOSSIBLE!!

What is flair to you and why do you do it?

I love flair because it's a form of entertainment at the bar and people always have fun at the bar. This job allows me to travel all around the world for flair competitions and meet a lot of people.

What are your suggestions to someone who would like to start flairing?

Practice, practice and practice, it's not easy, but DON'T GIVE UP!!!

What are some of the basic moves of flairing that one would start out doing?

I would say start with a flip from one hand to the other and back, basic toss behind the back, stall, and watch some flair videos to start putting together a routine.

Do you have a "signature" flair move or routine?

I have a couple of moves that I love to do, but are too complicated to explain with words. I just like to go on stage, have fun and do my best.

What drink did you prepare for us/ can you tell us a bit about it?

The name of the drink is "from dusk till dawn" and here is how to make it! Zach McKinney from shadow bar at Caesars palace in Las Vegas originally showed me this drink and I really fell in love with it and worked it to what it is in its current form.

From Dawn till Dusk

- 1 1/2 oz skyy vodka orange
- 1/2 oz Campari
- 1/2 oz peach schnapp
- 1/2 oz simple sirup
- 1/2 oz fresh lemon juice

Shake all together and strain into a martini glass!
Enjoy!
